What do you need?

Hey Roy think a lot lately about the way you helped me 12 years ago and it just reminded me of you being there for me in one of the darkest hours of my life got really used in my life and I just want you know I'll be forever grateful hope you're doing well God bless you

Are you doing ok in the aftermath of their disclosure?

Delivered

It's been a pretty tough season Roy. However it seems like with each passing day we are experiencing more of his grace. I believe we will see better days and hopefully before too long. Thanks friend
